A Startling Telegram.

Glancing over a daily paper this morning I blundered upon the following item of news:

"A special from Lawrence, Kansas, says that the Missouri river is rising rapidly at that point and great fears of a serious freshet there are entertained."

Now that looks all right on the face of it and reads coherently to a Fejee Islander or a Blackfoot Indian, but to one who is conversant with the geography and topography of the places bounded by that raging canal, the Missouri river, it is one of the most startling dispatches that ever swung over the wires, and Lawrence, Kansas, is thirty miles from the Missouri, hence the cities and hamlets which line that snaggy irrigator must be things that were. Jefferson City is doubtless loafing around about now on the coast of Norway somewhere.

Lexington is in the vicinity of the Horn, Kansas City is slashing about in the Caribbean sea, and Leavenworth has gone on a cruise to Spain. St. Joe is about passing Havana, Cuba, as I write while Council Bluffs and Omaha are sailing along side by side singing "We are all a band of burglars." But if these big towns are all gone where are the corner groceries at Sarcoxie and Hogwash, or the gin mills at Tonganoxie. Such facts as these crowded in on a man all at once are enough to make him break out into parody this way:

On the high old blini' water, On the long damp stream of water, Ever higher, wider, deeper, Grow the big Missouri river Ever faster, drier, further, Flows the stream o'er all the landscape!

These news dispatches are a constant source of joy to me—they corral into themselves such a wealth of fact and consistency that one can even wish that he were dead. Should I read in them some day that New York was bounded on the North by the Baltic sea, and on the South-west by the bay of San Pedro, I should have the same implicit confidence which sustains me now. Yet still I am afraid that sometime when the Prince of Liars comes along he will get exasperated at his second rate ability, and resign in favor of an associated press agent somewhere.

Yours alarmedly, HASK WAGONER.

CONVINCED.—A Danbury man carried home four quarts of soft-shelled clams in an overcoat pocket. In the same pocket was a huffer of loose tobacco. The soft-shell clams had often heard of the weed, of course, but this was the first sample they had seen, and by the time the man had reached home each clam had a nice quid comfortably rolled under its tongue. The clams were opened and cooked, without the family noticing the filthy habit they had got into. They were served for breakfast, and were partially eaten. The Danbury man is now convinced that he must either find something other than a pocket to carry clams in, or get a wider back door.

In a letter received by Mr. Burk, formerly of the Wheeler Expedition, from Mr. Klett, its clerical assistant, dated Washington, March 25, 1876, he writes that if Congress grants what they ask to continue their work, they will again operate in this section, commencing in June next.

TUESDAY, APRIL 11, 1876.

A. T. Stewart, Deceased.

A telegram brings the sad intelligence of the death of A. T. STEWART, who died at his residence in New York at 1:40 P. M. yesterday. A. T. STEWART was one of the wealthiest men on the continent. An Irishman by birth, he came to this country when a young man. By a close application to business and strict integrity he soon gained the confidence and esteem of business men. His integrity in business has been proverbial throughout the United States for many years. He always imputed his wonderful success in business to this single trait in his character. He never had but one price for an article, nor was he ever known to overrate an article for sale. We knew him personally and can say of a truth that he was one of the few successful men who never lost his common sense. Wealth did not spoil him nor make him a fool. He was a noble-hearted man, and we can truly say that America has lost one of her most useful citizens.

Wealth.

No one who has read history with care is ignorant of the truth, that an increase of wealth, is often the precursor of degeneracy and decay. As a rule, it is true of nations, families, and individuals. It is said there are exceptions to all rules, but we presume there are as few exceptions to this as any other. It is one of the strangest freaks belonging to humanity, to persevere with unwearied diligence, that, which all history teaches must bring ruin in the end. But we are all in it and somehow we can't help it. The race for wealth, like a mighty current seems to be sweeping around the globe and has drawn into the stream, all classes of all nations. Once before in the world's history did a similar mania possess the people and the result was the wreck of empires, the destruction of nations, and general desolation, ruin and suffering among the people. What is to be the end of the present mania God only knows. But the corruption in high places and the general bad faith and distrust among all classes indicates a state of wrecklessness in morals, that portends evil. It is not confined to America alone. Every nation on the globe is as corrupt as our own. The great hue and cry recently made about corruption in our own nation arises from the fact that we have been an exception to the rule until a few years back, while it has become to be the nominal state of other nations and is hardly noticed by the press and the people. The governments of other nations, is better adapted to suit the wants of the avaricious and lovers of power, than ours—power is concentrated in all other nations, and a few lords and nobles can control and flinch from the people as they please, and have done so until it is no longer noticed by the people. Only think of four millions of dollars taken from the hard earnings of the people, and given to Prince Albert to spend on a pleasure trip to India. With all our faults such an insult would not be tolerated in America. With a blush we have to endure the jeers of the press of Europe when the name of Belknap is mentioned. But the only difference is our officials have to steal what theirs take by law, and while they bow with their hats off to their noble officials, we put ours in the penitentiary, and put them to work. We want no more slurs from the European press. In the time of the old prophets it was declared that "All nations had gone astray" or wild. They are all off on another bender now, and no one seems to have much the advantage of another. They were brought up with a round turn before, and as history repeats itself we may expect their wild career to terminate in a similar manner.

Governor Irwin's Patrimony.

Out of six hundred and ninety-one bills passed by the Legislature, the Governor vetoed six, and pocketed one hundred to keep for his private use. The Governor has more pocket than we gave him credit for. We are informed that the most of the bills he pocketed were the big jobs put up by cliques and rings, and would have saddled on the cities and counties in this State debts to the amount of many millions. "Well done good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things, we will make thee ruler over many things." We have been informed that some of these bills would have added several hundred thousand dollars to the debt of our already tax-burdened county and city. We know nothing of any such bills, except one for school purposes, for thirty thousand dollars. We were very much in favor of this bill, and feel sorry it was not passed. But we will not stop to cry over it. Our Board of Directors must bridge over the difficulty some how. It is often the case that what we consider our greatest misfortunes turn out to be our greatest blessings. At all events we cannot help what has been done; let us take courage and do the best we can, and if we have escaped a debt of several hundred thousand dollars, (about which we knew nothing,) by the Governor's pluck, we will feed him on chicken pie when he comes to see us.

The Treaty With Hawaii.

The New York Herald says the bill for giving immediate legislative sanction to the Sandwich Islands treaty, which has been for some time in abeyance, consequent on the illness of Mr. Wood, is to come up again for discussion. It is to be hoped that it may pass. It is a strong presumption in favor of the treaty that it was ratified by the Senate by a large majority after a careful inquiry into its merits. The bill for carrying into effect is favored by the best brain and ability of the House. The chief opposition comes from an active lobby in the pay of American sugar interests.

The Herald is mistaken in supposing that the only opposition comes from the sugar raisers. All California and the Pacific coast stands firmly against it. This treaty effects the commerce of this coast directly while it effects the commerce of the East indirectly at all. Except sugar raisers we do not see that it has any influence on Eastern commerce whatever. In our estimation this treaty was gotten up in the interest and for the exclusive benefit of a few sugar planters and fruit raisers. Under this treaty, not only the fruits and sugar of all these islands will be brought in to the United States free of duty, but thousands of tons will be shipped from other countries to Honolulu and thence to the United States. It is really opening the door for the grandest wholesale smuggling in the world. Fair play is our motto. If the commerce of one country is to come to us free of duty, open the doors and let all other countries have an equal show. Discharge this army of sixty thousand revenue officers and twenty thousand detectives, and support the government by direct taxation. Those members of Congress from the Pacific coast, who are favoring this bill, are looked upon with suspicion, by all the people, as parties who are trying to feather their own nest.

The Passover.

Feeling inclined to be pious on Sunday, we went down to the Synagogue to worship with our Hebrew brethren. It was their annual Passover, an occasion memorable in the history of this wonderful people, and a day which every Jew in every nation on the globe is inclined to observe as a feast day because of the direction given in Exodus, 12th Chapter and from the 3d to the 20th verse inclusive. And it is to commemorate the providential escape of the Jews in Egypt, when God smiting the first-born of the Egyptians passed over the houses of the Israelites which were marked with the blood of the pascal lamb. This feast was ordered to be kept throughout all generations by an ordinance which is current to this day, and is large and attentive, and the ceremonies were solemn and impressive. After the usual preliminary services on such occasions, Mr. Edelman, the Rabbi of the congregation, delivered an address of thirty minutes, talking for the most part, of Israel, past, present and future. Past—In Abraham their nationality began. They were set apart as a peculiar people, to be the custodians of Divine truth forever. All the promises of God to their fathers have been faithfully fulfilled, as promised by history. Their present distinct nationality, scattered as they are among all nations is but a fulfillment of prophecy, and an evidence of God's peculiar care over them. The promise of their final triumph and future glory, is yet to be fulfilled. But He who made the promise to their fathers was able, and would perform it. The sermon was more suggestive than explanatory. But the speaker showed himself equal to his subject. The church in this city may congratulate themselves upon having so able and exemplary a man to officiate for them.

Squatterdom.

We went to the front Friday morning to see what progress the squatters were making in the location of public (?) land. Our friend Andrew Joughin the well known blacksmith on Aliso street near the corner of Alameda, has a fine ranch in that vicinity which doesn't happen to be public land; consequently his proximity to the squatters does not excite him, and to him and his amiable family we are indebted for the most generous hospitality during a sojourn of three days. This ranch presents from the house a view of the mountains and the sea, and the mountains on one side, and the sea on the other, with a view of a portion of this city. Being located on the Cienega Tejón with a United States patent, friend Joughin is undisputed by the squatters and occupies the position of the woman who saw her husband and a bear in a fight, not caring which whipped. The debateable ground is what is known as Rosecrans land and contains several thousand acres. At the rate at which houses were going up on that tract while we were there, it will not be long before it will be completely covered with "actual settlers," whereby the revenue should be very largely increased. We do not take sides with either party, but are ready to sympathize with those who wish to see the squatters very sanguine of maintaining their rights, and those who have bought and paid for their land are equally so, but there is so far but little apparent excitement, and no violence, the only demonstration being made by an old gentleman whose name we do not remember. He was after a man who had not only taken possession of the land he had bought but the house he had built. We will try and keep our readers posted as to the progress of the controversy.

About 1 o'clock Sunday night a fire was discovered in Robert A. Co.'s jewelry shop on Main street. The blaze started in one corner and soon ruined every thing in the place. There is $1000 insurance in the Home Company. $700 on tools which are all useless and $300 on goods.

San Francisco News.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—James Woodward, a barber about 32 years of age was found dead last evening on a sofa in his room, in the rear of the barber shop, No. 508 Third street, yesterday afternoon.

A crowd of hoodlums numbering twenty-five, knocked down and severely beat a heathen on the corner of Mission and Twelfth streets, after giving this evidence of their bravery they valiantly descended upon the wash house of another Chinaman nearby, with stones and bricks crushed in the windows and battered down the doors. One Chinaman who stood in said received a severe cut upon the scalp from a flying rock. No arrests.

Saturday night a posse of police made a general raid on Chinatown and captured 15 gamblers and a few lewd women. A large number of other gambling dens were in full blast but as if in defiance of the recent determination of the city authorities, they have doubled their force of doorknockers and it is now impossible to gain admittance.

The Chronicle to-day has what purports to be the expose of the manner in which the government is defrauded at the Custom House. It is said that the Custom House ring encourage and wink at the smuggling of opium and silks and share spoils. It is shown that they have been enabled to carry on this nefarious game sometimes with the connivance of the Treasury special agents sent here from Washington to ferret out and put a stop to it and in some cases despite the presence and action of these agents.

The Spaulding court martial is dragging along slowly, and the Judge Advocate thinks it will last six months longer. The evidence so far has been confined to the first count in the indictment, and the evidence since the first witness has been cumulative and strong against Spaulding.

Judge Sawyer to-day issued a certiorari transferring the suit of Charles Jost, of the Antioch distillery, against John Sedgwick, Collector of Internal Revenue, from the 19th District Court to the United States Circuit Court.

The Citizens' Centennial Committee met to-day and organized with Gen. John McComb as President. Beyond increasing the committee to one hundred and fifty members, nothing else was done.

Silver coin is in better demand to-day, owing to the hoarding process going on in view of the early passage of the resumption bill in Congress, and figures are 91 to 75 per cent discount, a decline of half a cent since Saturday. Trade dollars are a drug, all retailers refusing to take them for more than ninety cents.

O'Leary, the pedestrian, is getting over the effects of his walk rapidly, and is out on the streets, apparently little worse for his long walk.

The schooner Caroline Medon is ashore at Yaquina Bay and is a total loss. The crew were saved.

Night Dispatches.

EASTERN NEWS.

Balla.

CHICAGO, April 10th.—The political situation grows more exciting. The impression is current that Hering, the ballot box stuffer, will be indicted and take a back seat. The corruption in local political management has gone to such extremes that the people are thoroughly incensed, and while no violence may be done, there is a talk of completing the organization of a Vigilance Committee.

Crooked, More Crooked.

NEW YORK, April 10th.—A Washington special says there is a report that the Government is in possession of information of the existence of an extensive whisky ring in New York. The rumor is not verified.

Not Quite Royal.

NEW YORK, April 10th.—General Prado, President elect of Peru, is on his way to New York with the intention of being present at the opening ceremonies of the Centennial at Philadelphia. He is accompanied by a large suite, and will be tendered a reception by the city merchants.

How Robeson Transacts Government Business Abroad.

The facts about Robeson's mode of transacting Government business abroad came into the possession of the Committee in a peculiar way. Beebe, the Chairman, heard from a Wall street banker that certain drafts made on Seligman Bros., London, and accepted by the Secretary of the Navy, were offered for sale in the New York market. Nobody was anxious to buy them, and some indignation was expressed that the Government credit should be injured in the market. The arrangement with Seligman Bros. is that they pay the Government four per cent on deposits, while the Government pay Seligman Bros. five per cent on all drafts made on the firm. It is stated that Seligman Bros. have been in the habit of immediately putting time receipts on the market and realizing therefrom ready money in addition to the interest. All the indications are that Robeson drew a long time draft, intending to pay it with the appropriation for the next fiscal year. This is a clear and intentional violation of the law, and makes him liable to impeachment.

Tariff on Silks.

The Times' Washington special says the Committee of Ways and Means to-day struck the tariff on silks out of the tariff bill. The action would leave the tariff on silks at present, even if the bill should pass, which is not likely.

League Island Navy Yard Investigation.

A Herald Washington special says: The investigation of the League Island Navy Yard has commenced. The House Committee on Naval Affairs have left for Philadelphia. Fifty witnesses are subpoenaed so far. The committee will seek to demonstrate general mismanagement, frauds in contracts, negligence of officers, employment of extra hands at election time, etc., but the specific object will be the circumstances attending the removal of all the navy yards to League Island. Mackey will be the first witness, who will show flagrant frauds and audacious corruption, and that officers were intimidated into silence or sent to sea.

Rumors about Bristow.

The sensation is the rumored resignation of Bristow, consequent upon the testimony given by Henderson that he (Bristow) declared to him he had no confidence in the Administration. Bristow went to Kentucky a day or two ago. The regular press dispatches deny Bristow's resignation. The appointment of Boutwell as Chairman of Morton's Mississippi Outrage Committee is a direct insult to the South, as the witnesses they must examine are the very men whom Boutwell declared to be liars and unrepentant.

Extradition Cases of Gray and Brent.

LONDON, April 7th.—Wm. E. Gray of New York, who was up before the Bow Street Police Court yesterday for alleged forgery, was remanded to April 13th, but as the United States Legation is unwilling to base charges on the papers now here, he will be further remanded to await the arrival of the American officer now on his way here, who will bring two fresh indictments. It is thought the extradition of Charles Brent, charged with frauds on the Falls City Tobacco National Bank, of Louisville, Ky., and Gray, will be governed by the decision in the Winslow case. Nothing further can be said at present about the negotiations. The United States Government has presented its view of the matter, and it is supposed that Great Britain is now taking the opinion of her law officers.

General Sherman and the Mexican Border.

It is reported that when Sherman returns to Washington as his headquarters, he will put a new plan of operations into effect on the Rio Grande. He is not in favor of the suggestion that our troops will be allowed to cross the border.

Gleanings.

Mr. W. C. Pettibone of Prescott is at the Pico.

Judge McNealy, of San Diego is at the Pico.

The steamer Mohongo sails on Wednesday for San Pedro.

Mr. L. J. Felton, a distinguished attorney of San Francisco, is at the Pico.

The Chinese Sunday school was crowded Sunday and the interest seems to be increasing.

The Philadelphia Brewery is shipping a good quality of beer to all parts of the State.

The Railroad House does a splendid business. Register opposite the San Pedro depot.

A lady's saddle horse rushed wildly through our streets yesterday, though it transpired that no one was hurt, but it was a mere runaway.

The services at the Synagogue Sunday were of an interesting character. Rev. Mr. Edelman preached a touching sermon and delighted a large audience. Next Sunday Passover will close with solemn ceremonies.

We are pleased to note the following in the San Francisco Chronicle: "F. P. Katz brought suit against G. A. Falkenstein, a. a. for $11,100 damages for alleged false arrest and imprisonment on a charge of embezzlement.

The grading on Aliso street between Alameda and Los Angeles is progressing rapidly. A plank side walk is being laid on the North side of the street, which is welcome compared with the fraud known as a gravel walk.

A SMART BOY.—A Brownsville young man called on his intended the other evening, and while waiting for her to make her appearance, he struck up a conversation with his intended brother in law. After a while the boy asked: "Does galvanized niggers know much?"

"I really can't say," answered the amused young man; and silence reigned for a few moments, when the boy resumed: "Kin you play checkers with your nose?"

"No, I have not acquired that accomplishment."

"Well, you'd better learn. You hear me?"

"Cause sis says that yer don't know as much as a galvanized nigger, but yer dad's got lots o' stamps, and she'll marry you anyhow; and she said when she got ahold of the old man's sugar she was agoin' to all the Fourth of July parties, and she said she'd marry you, and you stay at home to play checkers with that hollyhock nose of yours."

And when "sis" got her hair banged and came in she found the parlor deserted by all save her brother, who was innocently trying the tails of two kittens together and singing "O, I love the Sabbath School."

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The steamer Senator is due at San Pedro today.

The Council again petitioned the Governor by telegraph last evening. The Mohongo will sail for San Francisco to-morrow.

Pomona will have a May-day celebration.

Some slight hail fell on the hill portion of the city yesterday.

Mr. Edmund Doak, of the popular sewing machine firm, is on a business trip to San Francisco.

Between the wind, the dust and the threatened rain, yesterday was altogether most disagreeable.

The important under the Lafayette will guarantee to sell clothing, hats, boots, and shoes cheaper than any other house in Los Angeles.

The San Diego World calls its contemporary "our neighbor-in-law." It evidently doesn't seek a close relationship.

The squatters are looking with envious eyes upon some land near the Mission. They will doubtless strike in that direction soon.

The trial of Lydard was continued in Justice Gray's Court yesterday. Mr. Temple had the witness stand during the entire proceedings.

The Mayor disposed of a plain drunk and a fancy drunk yesterday at $10 and $15 respectively. An Indian charged with attempt at incendiarism was discharged.

The ceremony of blessing the palms at the Cathedral last Sunday drew out an immense audience. The services lasted from 9 A. M. to 1 P. M., and were very interesting.

The Hygeian Home at Orange has passed into the hands of Webber & McGibbon, and will become a hotel of the usual stamp. As a sanitarium it was not financially a success.

The Anaheim Gazette says that the increase in the volume of water in the Santa Ana river gives evidence that heavy rains have fallen lately in the mountains.

A segment of a rainbow was visible in the Southeast on Sunday evening.

It was the end nearest the place where the pot of money is supposed to be located.

The cheapest house on the Pacific coast is the important under the Lafayette Hotel. They make clothing a specialty, and therefore carry the largest stock. Call ere buying elsewhere.

Jack White, an old miner well known in this section, started with his team for the Black Hills last week. He has two companions. The route will be taken by way of Salt Lake.

Hermann Brinkmeyer, of San Bernardino passed through this city yesterday to pay a visit, after years of absence, to his fatherland. He expects to be gone two or three months.

Heinrich sold altogether thirty-five full rigs of saddles, bridles, etc., to the Mexican Indians who called upon him the other day. Our guess was only about half big enough.

Eight hundred abalones may be seen at the market, corner of Spring and Court streets. This species of mussel finds a large sale in our city and is much esteemed. Cameron has also a large supply of fresh fish, butter, eggs, etc.

The Santa Barbara Press pronounces "Little Dorrit" no singer, and regrets that the audience should be annoyed by her attempts at melody. Considering the fact that she is a mere child we think the criticism a little severe.

With the facilities that the Important have enabled them to sell their clothing, hats boots and shoes at exact San Francisco prices. Give them a call and you are bound to be pleased with their prices and goods.

A party is fitting up in our city to visit the new placer mines in the White mountains about 60 miles from Florence, Arizona. Fabulous reports have been given out of the wealth of that section in gold.

Peter Quinn, one of the depot laborers, fell from a freight car Saturday and broke three ribs. He was engaged in unloading the car and in passing, stepped on a piece of bark, which threw him off his balance and down upon the ground.

The "San Francisco Bay Waltz" is the latest music out, published by A. L. Bancroft & Co. It is a composition of Gus Folte and will rank as one of his most popular productions. Every piano player should have a copy of the new waltz. Send your orders to Wm. H. Knight, Manager of Bancroft & Co.'s Music Depot.

The most important house in this city is the important clothing emporium under the Lafayette Hotel. They sell their clothing cheaper than any other house in Los Angeles, and keep by far the largest selection. Give them a call.

A suspicious looking keg was left at our office the other day, bearing the brand "P. B." We at first thought it some dynamite apparatus designed to blow up our office, and especially so as it made a tremendous fizzing when the faucet was tampered with. Later investigations, however, proved it to be only a keg of the Philadelphia brewery's best, which we will say can not be excelled in Southern California. Our friends of the brewery have our warmest thanks for their kind favor.

Dr. Brooke yesterday received a telegram that his wife was very sick, and requesting his immediate presence at the home of her parents in Illinois. Accordingly the Doctor has placed his practice in the hands of Dr. Collier, who will occupy his rooms and attend to his patients until his return. Dr. Collier is well and favorably known and will doubtless attend as faithfully to the patients of Dr. Brooke as he has to his own. Dr. Brooke leaves his business affairs in the hands of Mr. H. A. Farley, in Allen's building, who will make collections and payments.

More Agony.

The Council in Adjourned Session yesterday—They again discuss the Board of Public Works.

The Council met in adjourned session yesterday afternoon with Mayor Beaudry in the chair.

Present—Huber, Lichtenberger, Teed, Kuhrt, Workman, Sotelo, Gerkens and Leahy.

The Mayor stated that the meeting was convened to hear the report of the canvassing committee having in hand the petition to the Governor concerning the Board of Public Works.

The Mayor submitted a telegram from Governor Irwin in answer to his message, stating that appointments for members of the Board would not be made until Tuesday [to-day].

Mr. Workman, from the canvassing committee stated that several sheets of the petition were sent to the Governor last Saturday evening.

Mr. Huber was in favor of having the matter postponed for ten days, and meanwhile we might hold an election to nominate the Board, subject to the action of the Governor. He wanted a telegram sent to the Governor accordingly, signed by the Mayor and Common Council.

The Mayor endorsed Mr. Huber's views. He thought that the petitions already sent up were insufficient. The opposition had also circulated a petition and might have more signatures than their own, whereupon they would be beaten on their own grounds.

The following was submitted for the telegram to be sent to the Governor: To His Excellency, Wm. Irwin, Governor of California:

SIR: At the request of many citizens a meeting of the Mayor and Common Council was held at 2 P. M. today to ask you to delay appointment of the Board of Public Works for ten days. This delay is asked for the purpose of giving the people an opportunity of expressing their choice of appointees by a public election. We have a large number of names on petitions which we will forward. Please answer if you can grant the delay.

Marshall Carrillo asked the Council for instructions regarding the sale of the Machado property to pay for sewer assessment.

The matter was referred to the Committee on Sewers and city Attorney.

The Committee on Finance, in conjunction with the Mayor were instructed to forward the telegram to Governor Irwin. The telegram was then approved as read.

A petition was submitted by John Rump asking abatement of obstruction in zanja. Referred to the Committee on Zanjias with power to act in the premises.

Palm Sunday.

Palm Sunday is so called, because on that day the boughs of palm trees used to be carried in procession by the Christians, in imitation of those which the Jews strewed in the way of Christ, when he went up to Jerusalem.

This custom was continued in England until the second year of the reign of Edward VI. The Catholics used to celebrate the day by special services in their church suited to the occasion. Such a service was held in the new Cathedral in this city last Sabbath. The service was largely attended and very impressive.

The Most Popular Song.

The most popular song of the day is "Gathering Shells from the Sea Shore," composed by Will. L. Thompson. Such is the extraordinary popularity of this most exquisite song that it is scarcely possible to keep it in print. Messrs. Uyon & Healy, of this city, have just given an order for 5,000 copies, and other dealers are ordering it by the thousand.—Chicago Journal.

For sale by all music dealers. Price 40 cents. Published by W. L. Thompson & Co., East Liverpool, Ohio.

Butler & Severance have $50,000 in their books to loan. They post only $25,000 at once and when that is disposed of they take up another installment. It is not their custom to advertise $75,000 or more to loan when they have not a thousand. We are glad to note that this sterling new firm is meeting with an immense patronage. Their office is centrally located, easy of access and pleasantly fitted up, so that it makes a convenient rendezvous for Eastern people and visitors generally. A great accession to its attractions is the file of Eastern papers constantly on hand. You may pass the well known corner fifty times a day and you will always find it filled. It does us good to note such a state of affairs, as the Messrs. Butler & Severance possess enterprise and integrity deserving a full measure of reward.

The artificial stone works, in East Los Angeles, are turning out fine work, in almost every conceivable shape. Blocks suitable for building purposes, fences, flagging, and ornamental uses are daily turned out as good as the natural stone and at a much lower figure. In front of Gov. Downey's palatial residence on Main street, may be seen a splendid piece of block pavement between the gate and the porch. A mounting block on the edge of the walk and the front fence wall are of the same material. The same style of blocks are being used in the fence in front of the New Cathedral, and six new residences have their chimneys built of it. It is a promising industry and we trust our builders and house owners will inspect it where used and give the enterprising manufacturers in East Los Angeles their orders.

We have upon our table with the compliments of Lewin & Co., the latest number of "Loring's Tales of the Day" entitled "The Lucky Disappointment," by Florence Maryat. The authoress is one of the most popular sensational novelists of the day and this her latest work will no doubt find a wide circle of readers. The style in which the work is presented cannot be excelled in the cheap form (35 cents). Unlike most of the popular editions it is printed on fine book paper and the letter-press would do credit to the best book establishment in the country. Lewin & Co. are in receipt of the latest published novels.

Some cog-wheels belonging to the machinery of a windmill were found on Pacific street yesterday, by Mr. Leonard and brought to this office. The owner can recover them by application.

Steinmay, the Santa Monica baker, met with an accident yesterday by which he lost his horse and harness and narrowly escaped with his own life. While he was on the wharf delivering bread a train came along and the horse, becoming frightened, backed off into deep water. Steinmay fortunately alighted in time to save himself. The horse was drowned and the harness had to be cut to pieces to extricate the wagon, which was only slightly injured. The loss altogether will amount to about $75.

A company has been formed to develop the coal deposits in the San Fernando mountains recently discovered by Krane, Sotelo and others. The following Trustees were last evening elected: P. Beaudry, V. Gelich, Pasqual Arotcane, Ramon Sotelo, T. S. Slawney, D. Krane, L. Wolfkell, J. J. Morris and Mr. McKenzie. Mr. V. Gelich was chosen President, D. Krane Secretary and Ramon Sotelo Treasurer.
